Resiliency for Care Providers

This training, with the Sexual Assault Center, is for professionals who provide care to survivors of trauma, especially sexual trauma and gender-based violence. We will discuss the impact of trauma on service providers and organizations as well as the complex nature of self-care and self-awareness. Participants will be able to identify the common signs and symptoms of trauma exposure and engage in discussion regarding cultural wellness within organizations.

Work in Progress: Impact of COVID-19 on Service Provision

How has the COVID-19 pandemic affected interpersonal violence services in Middle Tennessee in the last few months? How has work been restructured to adapt to the current moment? What are the challenges and opportunities that have been presented? Join us for this panel discussion about the impact of COVID-19 on services in the Nashville community, including what agencies have done to continue to meet the needs of clients and staff during this time, and lessons learned for future practice. Featuring leadership and direct service staff from the Office of Family Safety, the YWCA of Nashville and Middle TN, Legal Aid Society, Nashville Children's Alliance and the Sexual Assault Center.
